WIN Universal Container Tracking

Track any container

Track any container by BL, booking or container number (depending on carrier) three different ways;

(1) Add a container tracking tool to your website (White Label)
(2) Integrate your system to get container statuses

▶ Stop surfing carrier websites
▶ Equip your staff with the most efficient way to stay informed about the status of any container
Give your customers a powerful self-service tool to track their ▶ containers on your company website
Using WIN's simple web-service API, your system can have the latest statuses on containers automatically
